Lt. Gov. Gregg to Speak at Life Celebration

The Hoover Presidential Foundation is pleased to announce Lt. Gov. Adam Gregg is confirmed as the keynote speaker for the Hoover's Hometown Days Life Celebration event at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 4.

This free event is part of the annual Hoover's Hometown Days festival in West Branch, in recognition of Herbert Hoover's birthday which falls on Aug. 10. The Life Celebration will begin with patriotic songs presented by the group, The Extension Chords, followed by short speeches from Hoover Presidential Library director, Thomas Schwartz, and Hoover National Historic Site superintendent, Pete Swisher. The Lt. Governor will then present the keynote address.

"Adam Gregg studied history in college and has a special appreciation of the Hoover campus," said Jerry Fleagle, president and CEO of the Foundation. "He and his family really enjoy visiting and taking in all the West Branch history."

Many members of Hoover family will also be in attendance for the event, including Herbert Hoover's grandson, Andy Hoover, great grandchildren Leslie Hoover-Lauble, Alex Hoover and Margaret Hoover, along with members of their families.

The Life Celebration is sponsored by Rummells Farms, Inc., Hills bank and Trust Co., and the Fulwider Agency. Hoover's Hometown Days begins Friday afternoon, Aug. 3 and culminates with a fireworks display the following evening.
