Merlin Hulse elected to Hoover Library Association Board of Trustees

WEST BRANCH, IOWA – Dec. 16, 2013 – The board of trustees of the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library Association have elected new member Merlin Hulse to a three year term. The election was held during the board of trustees meeting on Monday, Oct. 21.

Hulse, a retired farmer and former state senator, resides in Clarence, Iowa, with his wife, Darlene.

The Association is governed by a 43-member board of trustees whose fundamental responsibility is to ensure that the institution has the resources it needs to fulfill its mission. The board also has a unique fiduciary role in finance and budgeting, in endowment and investment management, and in preserving and expanding physical resources.

About the Association

The Herbert Hoover Presidential Library Association is a private nonprofit organization for the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library-Museum and National Historic Site in West Branch, Iowa. The Association fosters the collection, interpretation and preservation of historical resources relating to the life, ideas, values and times of Herbert Hoover, 31st President of the United States.
