State Sen. David Johnson joins, 12 others re-elected to Hoover Presidential Foundation Board of Trustees

WEST BRANCH, IOWA – Dec. 11, 2014 – The Board of Trustees of the Hoover Presidential Foundation has elected Ocheyedan resident State Sen. David Johnson to the board of trustees during their annual meeting held Friday, Dec. 5. The board re-elected 12 other members, including four executive officers.

Sen. Johnson has been a long-time supporter of the Foundation and a recipient of the Foundations' Uncommon Public Service Award in 2008. "It's an honor to join the board and to help spread the word about this important Iowa resource," Johnson said of the Hoover Presidential Library-Museum and National Historic Site.

Charlie Becker, Monticello, IA was re-elected president of the board; Bob Downer, Iowa City, vice president; Eugene Anderson, West Burlington, secretary; and Ann Doyle, Coralville, treasurer of the board, all by unanimous vote. Other members re-elected included Bruce Barnhart, West Branch; Bill Bywater, Matt Howard, and Ken Kinsey, Iowa City; Waldo Geiger, Des Moines; Allan Hoover III, Colorado; Jeanita McNulty, Blue Grass; and Jonathan Wickert, Ames.

The Foundation is a private, non-profit organization that supports the Hoover Presidential Library-Museum and Hoover National Historic Site in West Branch.

The Foundation fosters the collection, interpretation and preservation of historical resources relating to the life, ideas, values, and times of Herbert Hoover, thirty-first President of the United States. We promote public education about and appreciation for Herbert Hoover, support the Hoover Presidential Library-Museum and the National Historic Site at West Branch, Iowa, effectively garner and prudently manage Foundation resources, and serve Foundation members.
