Clinton Realtor Steve Howes joins Hoover Board of Trustees

WEST BRANCH, IOWA – Feb. 26, 2018 – The Board of Trustees of the Hoover Presidential Foundation has elected by unanimous vote Clinton, Iowa resident, Steve Howes, to the board during a recent meeting held on Jan. 24.

Howes, a partner in Howes and Jefferies Realtors, has been associated with the Foundation since 2016. “I’m looking forward to serving on the Hoover Presidential Foundation board,” Howes said. “I’m especially interested in helping organize a major renovation project that’s coming up on the horizon.”

Howes is a graduate of Iowa State University and has interests in real estate, banking and the travel industry. He is a member of Rotary, International and a past president of the Clinton Board of Realtors. He is active in the Clinton community, having served on the boards of the Chamber of Commerce, YMCA, Regional Development Corp., and other entities.

Dave Dierks, Hoover Presidential Foundation board president, said, “We’re excited to have Steve onboard. His experience in finance and building projects will be very welcome.”

Howes resides in Clinton with his wife, Lisa, and sons, Andrew and Ian.

About the Foundation

The Hoover Presidential Foundation promotes and supports the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library-Museum, National Historic Site, and other programs that enhance the understanding of Herbert Hoover as president and humanitarian.
