3. Names of References who are sending letters:

List three persons familiar with your work who will provide information regarding your personal abilities and research potential. It is suggested, but not required, that letters come from more than one institution. Three letters of recommendation must be postmarked by March 1 and sent directly to the Hoover Presidential Foundation for the application package to be eligible for review.

It is the applicant's responsibility to make sure all letters have been sent. It is strongly suggested that the applicant contact the Hoover Presidential Foundation to verify that three letters have been received.

For each reference, list name, title, business address, daytime telephone number, and e-mail address.
